

Mark H. Moore

CREATING
PUBLIC
VALUE

STRATEGIC MANAGEMENT IN GOVERNMENT

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments xi

Introduction	1
Purposes	1
Sources and Methods	5
Tests	8
1. Managerial Imagination	13
The Town Librarian and the Latchkey Children	13
Public Managers and Public Management	16
An Alternative Approach to Public Administration	21

PART I ENVISIONING PUBLIC VALUE

2. Defining Public Value	27
The Aim of Managerial Work	28
Different Standards for Reckoning Public Value	31
Municipal Sanitation: An Example	38
Toward a Managerial View of Public Value	52
3. Organizational Strategy in the Public Sector	57
William Ruckelshaus and the Environmental Protection Agency	58
Jerome Miller and the Department of Youth Services	60

Managerial Discretion and Leadership in the Public Sector	62
Defining Mission and Goals in the Private Sector	63
Defining Mission and Goals in the Public Sector	70
The Mission of the EPA: Pollution Abatement	76
The Mission of DYS: Humanizing the Treatment of Children	84
The Managerial Utility of Mission Statements	89
Evaluative Criteria for Organizational Strategies	94

PART II BUILDING SUPPORT AND LEGITIMACY

4. Mobilizing Support, Legitimacy, and Coproduction:
The Functions of Political Management	105
Miles Mahoney and Park Plaza	105
David Sencer and the Threat of Swine Flu	110
Political Management: A Key Managerial Function	111
Who Is Important in Political Management	118
Combining Diverse Interests and Values	126
The Dynamics of the Authorizing Environment	130
The Challenge of Political Management	132
5. Advocacy, Negotiation, and Leadership:
The Techniques of Political Management	135
Mahoney's Initiatives	135
Sencer's Initiatives	140
Evaluation	146
The Ethics and Techniques of Political Management	148
Entrepreneurial Advocacy	151
Managing Policy Development	162
Negotiation	172
Public Deliberation, Social Learning, and Leadership	179
Public Sector Marketing and Strategic Communication	185
Helping to Define and Produce Public Value	189

PART III DELIVERING PUBLIC VALUE

6. Reengineering Public Sector Production:
The Function of Operational Management	193
Harry Spence and the Boston Housing Authority	193
Lee Brown and the Houston Police Department	200

CONTENTS

The Function of Operational Management	207
Defining Organizational Mission and Product	213
Redesigning Production Processes	219
Using Administrative Systems to Influence Operations	226
Innovating and Capitalizing	232
From Diagnosis to Intervention	238

7. Implementing Strategy:
The Techniques of Operational Management	239
Spence: Rehabilitating Public Housing in Boston	240
Brown: Exploring the Frontiers of Policing	255
Reengineering Organizations:
What Strategic Managers Think and Do	273
Acting in a Stream	290

Conclusion: Acting for a Divided, Uncertain Society	293
Ethical Challenges of Public Leadership	294
Psychological Challenges of Public Leadership	305

Notes 311

Index 396